

Dairy Manufacturers Inc. Issues Voluntary Recall of products Due to non-compliance with Requirements under the 21 CFR 106.110 New infant formula registration.

Dairy Manufacturers Inc., of Prosper, TX – 5/24/24, is voluntarily recalling all lot codes for infant formulas available in the US: Crecelac Infant 0-12, Farmalac 0-12 and Farmalac 0-12 Low lactose to the retail and wholesale level. The products have been found in non-compliance with the requirements of the FDA under section 21 CFR 106.110 New Infant formula registration.

Dairy Manufacturers is conducting this voluntary recall because the products listed were sold in the U.S. without complying with the FDA's infant formula regulations. This was identified after an FDA notification, because the firm has not submitted the required premarket notification. Parents and caregivers should understand that the products have not been evaluated by FDA to determine whether they meet U.S. food safety and nutritional standards. No illnesses have been reported to date.

The products are labeled as infant formula and are packaged in a cardboard and aluminum can of 12.4 oz. Products were sold only in the state of Texas at retail level. The recalled products are:
